The Unofficial World Championship Of Computer Programs In Flying Draughts 2017

Aim of the game:

- selecting the best computer program in the draughts tournament
- popularization of computer of programs in Russian draughts

Organizer:

Krzysztof Grzelak - Poland

System of the game:

- tournament will be played the system " round robin " on distance twenty seven rounds, time of game - 10 minutes on party

- all games of tournament will be played in " flying draughts " micromatches from two parties with drawing initial moves and the position

- judge tournament it will use during competition from the official table FMJD

- about place of programs in the tournament decide - the largest amount of points in the tournament and the system Sonneborn Berger

- tournament will run the program ChessArbiter Pro

The time and the place of the game:

- tournament will start 4 December 2017 in the town Kórnik in Poland about 9:00 Central European Time

Conditions of participation:

- every programmer can use one program in the tournament, not allowed more
- every programmer can change versions of its software twice during tournament
- change the software version should be followed in the evening by electronic mail

Concluding remarks:

judge main tournament - Krzysztof Grzelak